

SCAM VICTIMS

Monday, June 7, 2010 11:52 AM

From: "United Nations" <info@unitednation.com>To: undisclosed-recipients

United Nations Development
United Nations Economic Commission on Financial Matters for Africa.
Office Address, 11 Queens' s Drive,
Ikoyi, P.O.Box 2075, Lagos.
Tel/Fax: +234-7064721707, Telex: 2111372
E-mail: united.nations2227@gmail.com
Cables: Unsdevpro Lagos

ATTENTION:

The United Nations in Nigeria,Benin Republic,Ghana and Bokinafaso received a report of scam against you and other British/US citizens and Malaysia,Etc. whom the country of Nigeria/Benin,Bokinafaso AndGhana have recompensed you due to meeting held with Four countries Governmentand the world high commissions against fraud activities by the Four country Citizens.

Your name was among those scammed as listed by the Nigeria Financial Intelligent Unit (NFIU).your compensation has been issued out in 6.5million USD to each of the affected victims and has been already in distribution to all the bearers. Your Funds was among those that was reported undelivered and not yet transfer as at last Friday and we wish to advise you to adhered to the instructions of the Committee to make sure you receives your funds Immediately
NFIU further told us that the use of Nigeria Couriers and the Benin was abolished due to interception activities noticed in the above mentioned courier services in Benin,Nigeria and Ghana and thereby have made aconcrete arrangement with the World Bank And Central Bank Of Nigeria on the transferring of this funds.

You are to contact us via united.nations2227@gmail.com immediately and also send us all your personal data, be advised that you should stop further contacts with all the fake lawyers and security companies who are in collaboration to scam you. Call me at: +234-7064721707.

NOTE:YOU ARE TO FILL IN THE FOLLOWING FORM:

YOUR NAME:

ADDRESS:

TELEPHONE NUMBER:

OCCUPATION:

COUNTRY:

IMPORTANT NOTICE:YOU MUST SEND A SCAN COPY OF YOUR DRIVER'S LICENSE OR IDENTITY CARD VIA EMAIL TO US.

Yours in Service,
Prof Kofi Annan
united.nations2227@gmail.com